

SERMON NOTES

PRAYER DIARY

Monday 30th March

Give thanks that a Christian will rise bodily from the grave, and pray we live looking forward to that day. (1 Corinthians 15v35-49)

Tuesday 31st March

Pray for the families and friends of Alison Blundell and Mary Rimmer and for us as their church family as their Thanksgiving and funeral services are this week. Pray for peace that comes with the knowledge they are safe in God's everlasting arms.

Wednesday 1st March

Pray for everyone living on Mellors Close. Pray they hear the good news of Jesus and believe.

Thursday 2nd March

Pray for the Evangelical Bible College of Malawi. Pray the bible will continue to be taught faithfully and the students will grow in love of God and His Word. Pray they are equipped to teach, to lead and to pastor in grace and in truth.

Friday 3rd March

Give thanks that on the cross Jesus totally destroyed the power of Satan, of sin and of death, for you. Praise God that 'it is finished' and those of us in Christ can appear with boldness before the throne of God, perfectly accepted through Christ. Praise God!

Saturday 4th March

As our men meet this morning for breakfast pray they are men who honour the King of Kings and encourage those around them to do the same.

Sunday 5th March

Pray we make known the risen Christ, pray we pass the news around that 'The Lord is risen indeed.' Pray today and everyday we live knowing the precious reality of our risen Saviour.
